ANNOUNCEMENTS

MISSIONS TIDBIT Sara was a beggar, struggling to make it from one day to the next. She was considered an “untouchable”. But members of a ministry team saw her as precious in God’s eyes and immediately brought her to their ministry center...she eventually decided to follow Jesus and now is a member of a Bible translation team. To quote her “I was a beggar, but God is using me to give the Bread of Life to our own people. I will help give His Word in my native language not only to this present generation but to generations to come.” Pray that many are able to follow in Sara’s footsteps and be used to make a difference for all eternity.
