Call to Worship

Psalm 95:6-8

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.

Confession of Sin

Lord, we confess to you that we have sinned against you with our hands, our mouths, and our thoughts. We have failed to love you with all our hearts, souls, and minds and have failed to love our neighbor as ourselves. Not only have we done what you prohibit, we have failed to do what you have commanded. We are sorry and ask for your forgiveness. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MISSIONS TIDBIT Saul, a young man who lives in the Middle East, was disillusioned. But after he received a copy of a translated New Testament, he read it from cover to cover. After reading it, he dropped to his knees and prayed the prayer of salvation he found at the end of the Bible. Without training or direction, he knew others needed this book. As a result, he and a small group of other believers smuggled tens of thousands of Bibles into his country. Never underestimate the power of the Word of God.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING There will be a congregational meeting after the worship service on June 4th. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the bison feed and other ministry ideas.

"Jesus became incarnate as embryo, fetus and teenager, infant and adult. In this way He consecrates humankind of all ages, appearances, and abilities. The Good Lord comes close in skin and bone, the same as ours. He remains near with muscle and blood like we have. He humbly bears these sicknesses and gently carries these sorrows of ours. Jesus has crucifix-ed God on you, ever the servant and once-for-all sacrifice." Pastor Michael Salemink, Lutherans For Life – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org
